Victim shot to death by armed robber

One man was fatally wounded and another man shot in the right forearm in front of the Robin's Nest Tavern, 109 Slough Road, Venice, at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday in an apparent armed robbery attempt.

Thomas Spencer Sr., 40, of East St. Louis, was pronounced dead at 9:10 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

An autopsy was scheduled for oday.

Spencer is believed to have died as a result of two gunshot wounds to the chest.

Rufus Enge, 60, also of East St. Louis, was treated and released at St. Elizabeth hospital for a two-and-one-half-inch laceration to the right forearm, caused by a bullet. According to police, the two men arrived together at the tavern and had just gotten out their car when approached by a third man holding a gun, believed to be either a 32 or 38 caliber automatic pistol.

A partial description of the gunman is that he was five feet 10 inches tall, wearing a short black leather coat.

much of the steel industry is likely to applaud remarks this week by President George Meany at the AFL-CIO convention in Los Angeles.

United Steelworkers President Lloyd McBride, at one time head of the Granite City sub-district of the union, reported that 96,000 have been laid, off because of below-cost 'dumping' of foreign steel in the U. S. by Japan and European producers.

the U.S. by Japan and European producers, nember AFL-CIO executive council urged "the U.S. government to more efficiently negotiate economic trade agreements with our free world trading partners to enhance the economic and employment opportunities of American workers."

In his address, Meany asserted, "Foreign trade is the guerrilla warfare of economics. And right now, the U. S. economy is being ambushed. We are willing to buy goods from the rest of the world, but unless. America has a productive base for its economy, there will be no paychecks to enable us to buy anything from anybody. "Free trade is a joke and a myth. And a government trade policy predicated on old ideas of free trae is worse than a joke — it is a prescription for disaster.

"The answer is fair trade — do unto others, as they do to us — barrier for barrier, closed door, for closed door, "California Governor Edmund G. Brown L. won a standing ovation for his attack on imports and resulting loss of American jobs:

Ir. von as standing ovation for his attack on impoperation of the comparative advantages that some countries have is because they work children, have no minimum wage, no 40-hour week, no other protections, no free unions, obviously they are going to have an advantage. But that's an edvantage of exploitation of other human beings that advantage. But that's an edvantage of exploitation of other human beings that and white they have been advantaged and the standard by the proposed, and I could like to join you in that opposition."

And Senator Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota told the gathering. There is no free trade when other governments provide massive subsidies to our competitors, when they permit exploitive wage rates, and when they dump excess production into the American market while maining trade barriers to the products that we produce."

LIVE NATIVITY SCENE last night on the lawn of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church facing 20th Street between Delmar and Edison avenues. With members of the group changing at intervals to avoid being chilled by the below-freezing weather, the dramatization — accompanied by a related narration — was presented for two hours on Wednesday evening. It will be represented from 7 to 90-clock tonight and Priday night by members of the church, as a means of focusing Christmas season attention on the birth of Christ. Live animals and costumed individuals add an authentic touch to the gathering around a manger. Many motorists and pedestrians stopped during the evening to view the program.

Recent FCC ruling and new phone rates may affect you.

Recently the Federal Communications Commission created a new program called "registration" which might affect your telephone rates. Registration means that you can now buy telephone equipment produced by independent manufacturers that is registered with the FCC, and in that way is approved for use with the nationwide telephone network.

Registration gives most telephone users a choice. You may continue to receive telephone service exactly as you do now (with the telephone company owning the equipment and responsible for all maintenance) or you can provide your own FCC-approved telephone equipment and or provide your own FCC-approved telephone equipment and rorrors equipment used by both single-line residence and business customers but excludes party lines and coin phones.

We've adjusted some rates

So customers who choose to purchase their own telephone equipment won't be charged for services or equipment formerly provided by us we've made certain changes. These changes took effect December 2 and include:

ude:

Monthly credits of 70°C per phone for eustomers who purchase their own main or extension phones and agree to maintain them. Revised rates for Tunch-Tome service, $4.50°a month, has been changed to 60°C per time and 50°C for must single-line pushbutton phones furnished by us. This means customers with one pushbutton phone furnished by us. This means customers with one pushbutton phone furnished by us. Whis means customers with one pushbutton phone furnished by us. Whis means customers with one pushbutton phone furnished by us. Whis means customers with two or more Touck-Tone phones will have an furnessed in their charges.

Full explanation with phone bill.

Details of the registration program and rules for customers who choose their own telephone equipment are covered in a four-page pamphlet included with your telephone bill. The pamphlet also available from any Illinois Bell business office, is called, "FCC sets new regulations for connecting telephone equipment."

Burglar is cut

A large amount of blood was discovered in and around the Lincoln Place Community Center, 822 Niedringhaus Ave., after a burglary early this week.

Blood was found on the front door and the ground and a trail of blood was found on the floor inside the building. Windows inside the center were broken.
Entry was gained by prying a screen from a rear window and breaking the window. Nothing is known missing.

Ways of protecting shrubs from rabbits

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT Area Horticulture Adviser Wild rabbits may be sampling our shrubs before the banquet

Wild rabbits may be sampung your shrubs before the banquet begins.

The sample can ruin your rabbits or small tree by chewing off the limbs or eating the bark on the trunk.

Small trees and shrubs can be protected by wrapping the trunk with screen or a loose wrapping up the plant to sillow for a rabbit sitting on a small somewhalk.

When a group of small shrubs occur, or your raspberry planting is at stake, build a wire fence around the entire plan-
